

product introduction

The IVP-C1 inline manual intensity control module offers the option to externally control the intensity of a light via the three quarter turn potentiometer. The inline adapter comes with one male and one female 5 pin M12 connector. Cable length from male end to female is approximately 2 meters.

product features

- Male and female ends
- Operates on +24VDC
- 2 meter 5 pin M12 connector
- Externally control intensity
- Three-quarter turn potentiometer
- Din Rail mountable

warnings

Attention

Pot is used with the Smart Vision Light and standard power cable. IVP-C1 is to be connected between the light and the power cable for light.

configuration

